2. Cookies Definition

Cookies are small files of information that a web server generates and sends to a web browser. Web browsers store the cookies they receive for a predetermined period of time, or for the length of a user's session on our Site. They attach the relevant cookies to any future requests the user makes of the web server. They contain data about the user's interaction with the Site, such as login information, preferences, and session details.

3. Cookies Types

- a. Strictly necessary/Essential Cookies: These cookies are essential for the operation of our Site. They enable you to navigate our Site and use its features.

- b. Performance Cookies: These cookies collect information about how visitors use our Site, allowing us to improve its performance. They help us understand which pages are the most and least popular.
- c. Functionality Cookies: These cookies allow our Site to remember choices you make (such as your username or language) and provide enhanced features.
- d. Targeting/Advertising Cookies: These cookies are used to deliver advertisements that are relevant to you and your interests. They are also used to limit the number of times you see an advertisement and help measure the effectiveness of advertising campaigns.

4. What Cookies We Use

First and third-party cookies: whether a cookie is 'first' or 'third' party refers to the domain placing the cookie.

a. First-party cookies

First-party cookie is a string of information that our Site stores on a visitor's computer, and that the visitor's browser provides to the Site each time the visitor returns. Titan FX uses cookies to identify and track visitors, their usage of Titan FX Site, and our Site access preferences.

b. Third-Party Cookies

In addition to our own cookies, we may also use various third party cookies to collect data related to our user's behaviour (e.g. how much time they spend on which pages, which links they choose to click, what users do and don't like, etc.) and the users' devices to optimise our service and your experience. This includes a device's IP address (processed during your session and stored in a de-identified form), device screen size, device type (unique device identifiers), browser information, geographic location (country only), and the preferred language used to display our Site.

We also use third party cookies to help us collect data related to functionality, performance / analytics and marketing, and for social media purposes. The third-party cookies are outside of our control. The third parties may, at any time, change their terms of service, purpose and use of cookies, etc. You are advised to check the third party policies regularly.

5. How We Use Cookies

We use cookies to:

- Optimize the functionality and performance of our Site.
- Analyze user behavior to enhance user experience.
- Provide personalized content and ads.
- Remember your preferences and settings.

6. Managing Cookies

You can manage your cookie preferences (block or delete cookies) through your browser settings. Most browsers allow you to refuse cookies or to alert you when cookies are being sent. Please note that if you disable cookies, some features or functions of our Site may not function properly.

Contact us directly at support@titanfx.com for further any queries related to cookies.
